READ THIS FIRST

This is not a game for entertainment.

This is not a tool for comfort.

This is not a space for clarification.

EXPOSED does not give answers.

It reveals how people answer.

Truth is welcome.

Deception is allowed.

Silence is respected.

Proceed intentionally.

EXPOSED is a moderated social experience designed to reveal how people think when meaning is not explained and truth is optional.

This is not about being right or wrong. It is about exposure—of values, instincts, contradictions, and beliefs.

You will not hear people the same way after this.
